

All Saints' Weekend Away for Women

4th-6th February 2011

Come away for a weekend to Willersley Castle in Derbyshire – time for you to spend with other women and on your own if you wish. We will have time for all sorts of things: time to relax with one another in comfortable surroundings and have some fun! And we will have some times for worship, teaching and ministry, although anyone is welcome to opt in or opt out as they please. Do feel free to invite friends!

We will be the only visitors at Willersley Castle – Arkwright's stately home near Matlock Bath, just over an hour away. This 200 year-old Grade II listed building is warm, comfortable and homely – a really lovely place to spend a weekend with friends! There are woodland and riverside walks in the 60 acres of grounds, which are connected through a private gate to a footpath that leads into the Victorian resort of Matlock Bath. There is a cosy sitting room for those who want to curl up with a book or play a game with others. There is a lovely new swimming pool, and wonderfully, we won't need to cook or clear up all weekend!

The hotel offers accommodation in twin rooms – you can let us know nearer the time with whom you would like to share a room. There are some single rooms available, and these will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.

The cost for full board is £125, and there are bursaries available if the cost would prevent you coming. Please return the slip below to the church office ASAP with a deposit of £25 payable to All Saints' PCC. Andria Hughes is happy to oversee a savings scheme for those who would prefer to pay in installments through the year – have a word with her if that would help you.

Back at home in Marple the guys will plan some activities for those left looking after the children, and All Age Worship on the Sunday will mean those on the Kids teams can come away without feeling guilty!

We are so looking forward to this time away and do hope you can join us for what we are sure will be a memorable and wonderful weekend!

With love, Nadine
